

LEFT PENNILESS CLIENT TO DIE IN CHAIR; DISBARRED

Jersey Court Plays Lawyer
Man to Fate.

TRENTON, June 8.—Declaring that Frank M. McDermitt, a widely known Newark lawyer, had abandoned a client in the shadow of the death chair because the condemned man was without funds, the Supreme Court for the second time disbarred McDermitt from the practice of law.

In 1899 McDermitt was disbarred for taking money from a client which should have been used in prosecution of a case. He was subsequently reinstated.

McDermitt was admitted to the bar thirty-nine years ago and has been a picturesque character in Democratic State politics, having been a candidate for United States Senator and Governor.

He was counsel for Harold V. Lamb, alias George H. Brandon, of Union County, convicted of killing Miss Edith Janney and Arthur Kupper in an automobile on Aug. 21, 1918. He took an appeal to the Court of Errors on his client's behalf. He was charged with failure to prosecute the appeal and contended his client was without funds.

The Prosecutor of Union County moved for a dismissal of the appeal from the death sentence and the court ordered an investigation of McDermitt's conduct in the case. The lawyer's appeal is still pending.

The court, in its order disbarring McDermitt from abandoning his client "in the very shadow of the electric chair," said the abandonment was not less culpable because he subsequently resumed his efforts "under strong pressure from the court."

"For counsel to abandon a client at such a crisis," said the court, "is like a soldier deserting in the face of the enemy. Dereliction on the part of attorneys and counselors is not uncommon, but fortunately the most untrustworthy counsel is ordinarily loyal enough to his client, and even the ordinary sense of self-interest urges a lawyer to do the best he can to save his client's life."

"It is rare that counsel sets his own desire for money above his client's chance of life. We find that McDermitt was guilty of gross dereliction in his duty to his client. We can think of none grosser. If mere unfaithfulness in money matters justified his disbarment in 1899, much more must lack of fidelity in a matter of life and death justify his disbarment in 1921."

PLANS FOR FALL CAMPAIGN.

Koenig Names Conference Committee to War on Tammany.

A conference committee of the Republican organization for New York County to devise means for the defeat of Mayor Hylan and the Tammany ticket next fall, was announced last night by Samuel S. Koenig, County Committee Chairman.

Mr. Koenig will act as Chairman of the new committee and Miss Helen Varick Boswell, head of the County

Women's Republican organization, will be an ex-officio member. The committee is named to confer with any other organizations seeking the defeat of the Tammany ticket at the fall election. Seven women are included in the twenty-one members of the committee, virtually all district leaders of the party, named by Mr. Koenig. The committee is composed of Charles D. Hilles, Col. Michael Friedsam, Laura Skinner, Henry W. Taft, Sarah Butler, daughter of Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, President of Columbia University; Antonio Dalessandro, Mrs. Myrtle Hanford, Charles E. Heydt, Mrs. William J. Murphy, Joseph Levenson and Ogden L. Mills.

C. Potter, Robert S. Conklin, Elizabeth Pierce, William C. Hecht Jr., Ruth Pratt, Congressman Thomas J. Ryan, Robert P. Lewis, Dr. Wilbur J. Murphy, Joseph Levenson and Ogden L. Mills.
